

UNIwersYTET
O P O L S K I

PHD PROGRAMME IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

www.doctorate.uni.opole.pl doctorate@uni.opole.pl

Learning Outcomes

(in accordance with the Polish framework of qualifications)

Knowledge
k-W-1	S/he is familiar with advanced terminology used in the field of humanities.	P8S_W k-W-2	S/he demonstrates an advanced level of knowledge of past and present theoretical approaches and methodologies of linguistics/literary studies.	P8S_W
k-W-3	S/he demonstrates an level of knowledge of interrelations of linguistics/literary studies with other disciplines in the field of humanities and arts.	P8S_WG k-W-4	S/he is familiar with ethical, legal, and economic conditions of research and with intellectual property rights. S/he possesses an advanced level of knowledge of such conditions and rights with reference to linguistics/literary studies.	P8S_WK
k-W-5	S/he is familiar with recent developments in contemporary culture and arts, and demonstrates a deepened awareness of recent trends in language and literature.	P8S_WK
k-W-6	S/he demonstrates an advanced level of knowledge necessary for designing college courses in English language and literature on an undergraduate and graduate level and is familiar with best professional practices in the field of higher education.	P8S_UW Skills
k-W-1	S/he is able to find, acquire, gather and systematize information from a variety of sources.	P8S_U k-W-2	S/he is able to classify, select, verify and convey information acquired from different types of sources.	P8S_U k-W-3	Being familiar with the current state of research, s/he is able to summarize, analyze, interpret appropriate sources, and use them in her/his own research projects in linguistics/literary studies.	P8S_U k-W-4	S/he is able to design, carry out and appropriately support and document her/his own innovative research projects in linguistics/literary studies.	P8S_UW
k-W-5	S/he is able to present results of her/his own research in various forms (oral and written) using different media, and demonstrating	P8S_UK familiarity with academic standards and conventions which govern different types of presentations in the disciplines of linguistics/literary studies.

k-W-6	S/he is able to plan and carry out individual and collective research project in a national and international context	P8S_UO
k-W-7	S/he is able to develop curricula and syllabi and put them into practice using contemporary methods and tools.	P8S_UU
k-W-8	S/he possess interpersonal and communicative skills that allow for a successful transmission of knowledge to undergraduate and graduate students. S/he can give feedback and evaluate their work in a just and thoughtful manner.	P8S_UU
Social Competencies
k-K-1	S/he can work in a productive manner in a research team, assuming a variety of roles and honing her/his research and organizational skills, being aware of the ethical dimensions of research, and being responsible for research outcomes.	P8S_KK k-K-2	S/he can participate in research evaluations procedures, both as an objective evaluator and as a person whose work is evaluated. S/he can publicly communicate her/his observations and opinions concerning a variety of issues in a competent, rational, and responsible manner.	P8S_KO
k-K-3	S/he adheres to ethical principles of research community, respecting the idea of open access to research results in accordance with appropriate intellectual property rights.	P8S_KR
k-K-4	S/he can actively participate in the life of the academy, shaping its mission and developing its curriculum in the field of English language and literature.	P8S_K